

¿QUIÉN DIJO...?

COLOCA CADA FRASE EN EL BOCADILLO DE SU AUTOR.

Qualis artifex pereo!

("¡Qué artista perece conmigo!").

Sit divus, dum non sit vivus!

("Que sea divino, con tal de que no esté vivo").

Delenda est Carthago

("Cartago debe ser destruida").

O tempora, o mores!

("¡Oh, tiempos!, ¡oh, costumbres!").

Odi et amo

("Odio y amo" = alude a las contradicciones que sufre un amante cuando no es correspondido).

Amor Omnia vincit; et nos cedamos amori.

("El amor vence a todas las cosas; cedamos también nosotros al amor").

Nec sine te nec tecum vivere possum

("Ni sin ti ni contigo puedo vivir").

Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori

("Dulce y honorable es morir por la patria").

Alea iacta est

("La suerte está echada").

Homo sum, humani nihil a me alienum puto

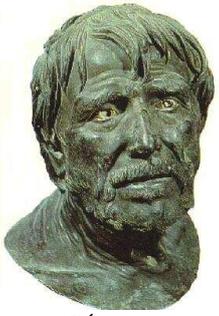

(Hombre soy; nada humano me es ajeno").

Homo homini lupus

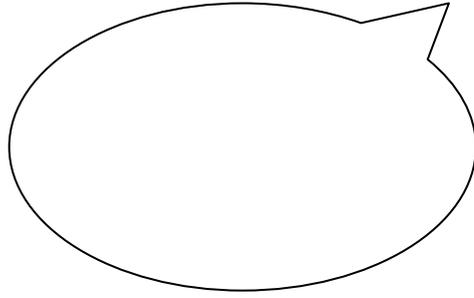

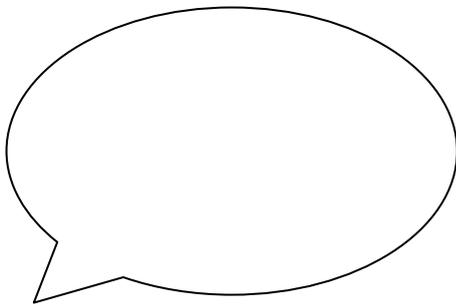

("El hombre es un lobo para el hombre").

Errare humanum est: perseverare diabolicum

("Errar es humano; caer en el mismo error, diabólico").

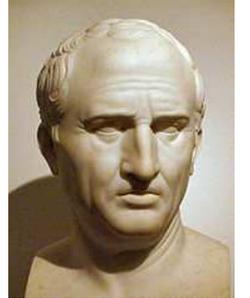

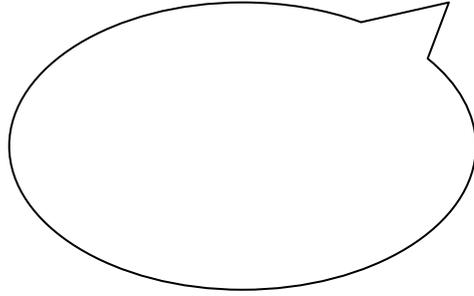

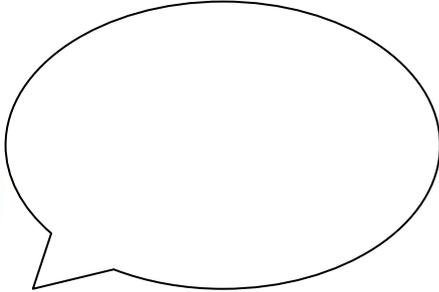

Seneca

Caracalla

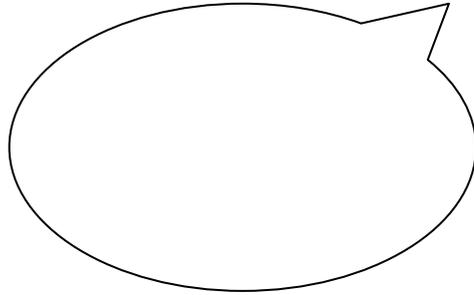

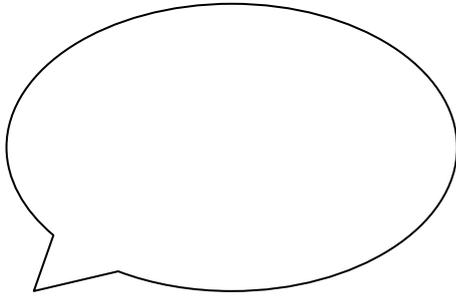

Julio César

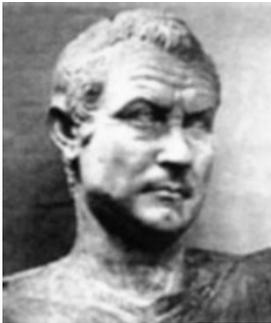

Cicerón

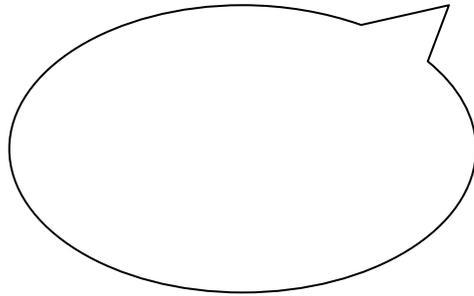

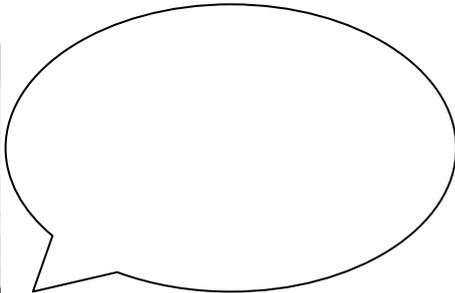

Virgilio

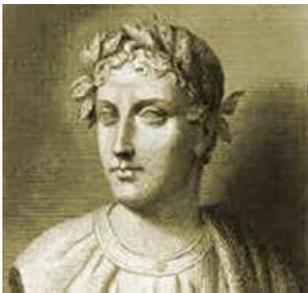

Nerón

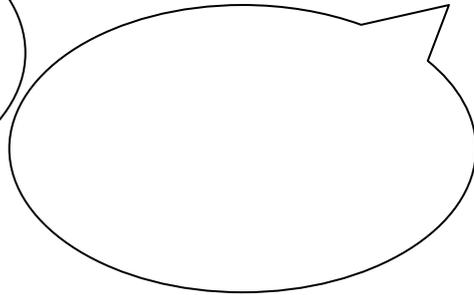

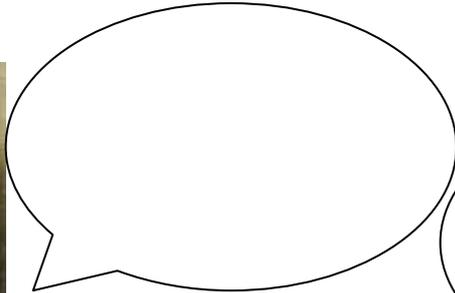

Plauto

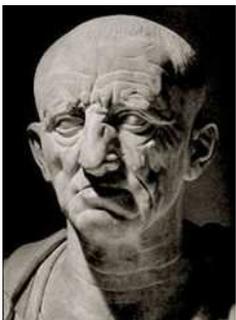

Catulo

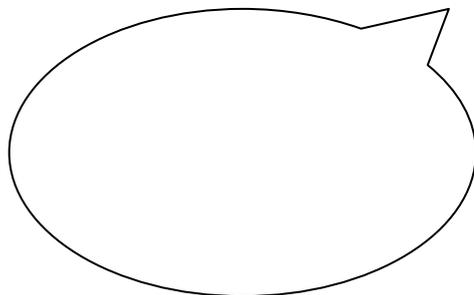

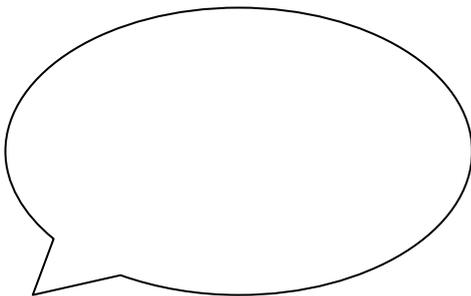

Horacio

Ovidio

Catón el Viejo

Terencio